What you'll receive

- Hands on experience in writing engaging articles on travel and international development
- Online training on how to use keywords to ensure your articles rank top on search engines
- Training in writing for brands and publications
- Publication of your articles on our website, allowing you to build an online portfolio of published content by a reputable, and highly ranked international brand
- One-on-one feedback and mentoring from our editor delivered via email
- A digital certificate of completion
- A recommendation from the editor also after completion (written testimonial or LinkedIn)
- The potential to join our team of specialized freelance writers.

What will be expected of you

- Commitment to the four-month program
- To spend roughly 2–3 hours per week writing blogs and working through our training pack in your own time
- To write at least two blog posts per month for the duration of the four-month program
- Edit and engage with blogs based on the editor's feedback.

GVI reserves the exclusive right to publish all content produced by GVI writing interns for the GVI Writing Academy. This content may not be republished or resold, under any circumstances. Participants should be ready to commit to the full four months of the internship. Receipt of certificate of completion, and a professional recommendation are contingent upon participants completing the internship in full.

Payment of £250 is due on the last day of each month before the next module begins. The total program fee of £1,000 may also be paid upfront. GVI reserves the right to cancel your internship at any time due to funds not being received. Should you wish to cancel your internship at any time, please note that any fees already paid to GVI are non-refundable.
